Daniel Briggs Joins Benesch as an Associate

Press Releases

As Benesch continues to add to its roster of top-notch legal talent, the firm is pleased to welcome associate Daniel Briggs to the firm's Corporate & Securities Practice Group in Cleveland.

"Our business clients are focused on navigating complex transactions across a range of industries, so building our capacity to deliver quality work for them in these areas is a key priority," said Gregg Eisenberg, Managing Partner and Executive Committee Member. "Daniel is an outstanding addition to our team."

Daniel provides counsel to clients on a variety of corporate matters, including business formation, reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, commercial contracts, and corporate governance.

He has experience drafting and negotiating corporate and transactional documents, including asset and stock purchase agreements, operating agreements, incorporation and organizational documents, employment agreements, promissory notes, security agreements, commercial contracts, restrictive covenant and confidentiality agreements, corporate resolutions, and ancillary transactional documents. He is also experienced in performing transactional due diligence, including review and preparation of summaries of governing documents, supply and distribution agreements, lien search results, real property leases, and a variety of other contracts and materials.

Daniel graduated cum laude from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law and magna cum laude from University of North Carolina - Wilmington with a B.A. in Criminology. He is one of over 50 new attorneys to join Benesch so far in 2021. Since making its debut on the AmLaw 200 list in 2016, Benesch has advanced 27 places and is currently ranked at number 168.
