Benesch Adds Partner to Corporate Team in Chicago

Press Releases

As Benesch continues to add to its roster of top-notch legal talent, the firm is pleased to welcome Partner Andrew Maratea to the Corporate & Securities Practice Group in Chicago.

Andrew focuses his practice on general corporate matters, commercial real estate transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and the ever-evolving day-to-day legal needs of his clients.

Andrew also serves as outside general counsel to a number of private companies and family offices as well as a board member for several charitable organizations. His clients include private equity firms, family offices, high-net-worth individuals, lenders, entrepreneurs, developers, and private companies of all sizes. Andrew's typical representation involves acquisition and sale transactions, debt and equity financings, leasing transactions, reorganizations and recapitalizations, joint ventures, negotiating commercial agreements, and various other general corporate matters.

Andrew received his J.D. from Loyola University Chicago School of Law, and his BIS from Arizona State University.
