Main Bio

Jordan has represented companies in the energy, public utilities and private equity industries on a range of issues including regulatory commission compliance, early-stage financings, and other corporate matters.

In his energy practice, Jordan has assisted one of the nation's largest competitive retail electric providers with regulatory compliance including spearheading discussions with state regulators. Jordan has advised public utilities and other energy companies on matters before public utility commissions, provided legislative and regulatory guidance, and advised on other public utility matters.

In his private equity practice, Jordan has represented emerging companies in securing early-stage equity financing—including series seed and SAFE financings, entity formation, and other general corporate transactions. Jordan has helped secure cross border loan transactions and draft various private equity fund governing and offering documents.

Jordan earned his law degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 2022, graduating magna cum laude. He graduated from the Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University in 2011 with a focus in Finance. During his time at the University of Miami School of Law, Jordan completed a judicial internship in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida.
