

Erick W. Howells

Paralegal

San Francisco

T. 628.600.2235

ehowell@beneschlaw.com

Main Bio

Erick brings over 22 years of complex Litigation experience to Benesch working in a wide range of practice areas including Employment, Product Liability, Traditional Labor, Consumer, Trade Secret, Personal Injury, Insurance and Environmental.

Erick is also experienced with defending clients at both State and Federal trials, arbitrations and administrative hearings as well as working on large class actions. He has experience drafting and coordinating legal holds, strategizing with outside counsel, and reviewing best practices within trial preparation and arbitration. Additionally, Erick has assisted with trial preparation and arbitrations by preparing trial binders, subpoenas, presentation materials, and organized exhibits. Erick has prepared and updated discovery, expert, key documents, and medical record binders. He has also shepardized, proofread Bates-stamped and cite-checked pleading and motion documents.

Erick has additional experience assisting in coordinating, organizing, and reviewing documents and procedures while managing client relationships and project management. In addition, he has appeared in court on behalf of corporations, where he prepared releases, declarations, affidavits, and verifications.

News

- Erick Howells mentioned in Northern California Record | “Benesch Law Firm Announces Additional Paralegal to Litigation Team in San Francisco”, May 2, 2023
- Benesch Adds Paralegal to Litigation Team in San Francisco, April 26, 2023

Related Practices

Litigation

Education

- Cornell University, College of Arts and Sciences, 2001, B.A. in Government

Memberships

- Habitat for Humanity Global Village