Main Bio

SaDella focuses on civil litigation and has experience drafting a wide variety of briefs, pleadings, motions, and written discovery.

SaDella earned her law degree from DePaul University College of Law, where she graduated summa cum laude and received a Certificate in Business Law. In 2021, while representing a client as a Student Attorney with the DePaul Law Civil Litigation & Health Law Clinic, SaDella won an administrative hearing before the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES). SaDella also worked at a legal center that provided services and support for refugees, asylum seekers, unaccompanied minors, and victims of human trafficking and domestic violence. In 2021, she was included in the American Bar Association's 2021 Pro Bono Honor Roll.

Before attending law school, SaDella worked in various retail management and leadership roles, including Human Resources, Sales, and General Manager. At her former employer, SaDella gained experience in internal investigations and was part of a state-wide Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) audit. Previously, SaDella owned and operated a small real estate and land business.
