

May 31, 2024

Benesch Adds Managing Associate to Litigation Team in New York

Press Releases

Benesch, one of the fastest-growing firms on the AmLaw 200 list, is pleased to welcome Managing Associate Loren Scolaro to the Litigation Practice Group in New York.

Loren has extensive experience in bankruptcy law and has worked on Chapter 7, Chapter 11, and Chapter 13 bankruptcy cases, including adversary proceedings. She has represented debtors, creditors, and other parties in bankruptcy matters including Chapter 11 restructurings, distressed asset sales, claims administration, and asset recovery.

Loren has provided legal analysis and advice related to injunctions, summary judgments, class certification, and various contested matters. Her work includes drafting trial and appellate briefs, motions, adversary pleadings, and loan documents. Loren managed discovery processes, prepared for depositions, and conducted client interviews and investigations.

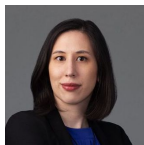

Additionally, Loren has performed internal risk assessments, drafted internal policies and contracts, and advised clients on business reorganization, asset transactions, and adversary proceedings. Her thorough due diligence and comprehensive legal expertise makes her a valuable asset in bankruptcy law and client representation.

Prior to Benesch, Loren clerked for the Hon. Elizabeth S. Strong, U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York. She graduated cum laude with a Juris Doctor from New York University School of Law and holds a Bachelor of Arts from Northwestern University.

Related Practices

Litigation

Related Professionals

Loren Scolaro

Managing Associate
Litigation

T. 872.302.6465
lscolaro@beneschlaw.com