Main Bio

Roger focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, representing both buyers and sellers. He has assisted with multiple high-value M&A transactions and brings experience drafting a wide range of legal and transactional documents, including due diligence memorandum, disclosure schedules, closing checklists, and officer's certificates, among others.

Passionate about understanding the intricacies of his clients' businesses, Roger prioritizes supporting them through each stage of their growth. Known for his diligence, enthusiasm, and collaborative approach, Roger strives to make complex transactions as painless as possible for clients and colleagues alike.

Roger earned his J.D. summa cum laude from The University of Akron School of Law, where he received seven CALI Awards and served as Editor-in-Chief of the Akron Law Review. He was also a finalist at the 2024 AAJ Student Trial Advocacy Competition and a semi-finalist in both the 2023 AAJ Student Trial Advocacy and Buffalo Niagara Mock Trial competitions.
